Characteristics

It is recommended for those who take much care of beauty and health because the products contain abundant amino acids and citric acids, that have an effect on recovering Hung-over and fatigue. The products are designed to be packed in a sachet for a dose. Citric acid has an antioxidative effect on blood circulation and high blood pressure, so that it can be expected to prevent lifestyle-related diseases. And moreover, it works on restraining lactic acid from its increasing in our body, that may recover the fatigue at the soonest.
